TO PROTECT LIVES AT SEA

MESSAGE ON SUBJECT BY PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.

Advocates Passage of Bill Requiring Equipment of Ocean Going Vessels With Wireless Telegraphy—Senate and House Proceedings.

Washington, Feb. 8.—To prevent the loss of life by catastrophes at sea, such as so nearly befell when the trans-Atlantic liner Republic went down recently, the president to day sent to congress a message urging the passage of a bill similar to that introduced by Representative Burke of Pennsylvania, requiring the equipment of ocean going vessels with wireless telegraph apparatus.

Previously to transmission of the message, the president was in conference with Burke on the subject. The president had been advised by the commissioner of navigation that in his opinion such legislation was most urgently demanded and he argued in strong language passage of this or a similar bill.

Senate.

After a very brief legislative session to day the senate closed its doors and devoted the day to consideration of the nomination of William D. Crum to be collector of customs for the port of Charleston, S. C.

House.

To day in the house practically the entire session was given over to consideration of bills pertaining to the District of Columbia. A message from the president was read recommending a law requiring ocean going vessels to be equipped with wireless telegraph apparatus.

Filed Protest.

C. C. Arosamania, Panama minister, to day called at the state department and filed a protest from his government against a speech made in the house recently by Rainey of Illinois, in which President Obaldia of Panama was severely attacked. The minister acted in pursuance of instructions cabled by his government.

Secretary Bacon refused to comment on the action taken by the Panama minister, but said he expected to make a statement tomorrow concerning the matter. The national assembly of Panama a week ago unanimously approved a resolution in which it was declared "assembly publicly and solemnly protests against the insult to the chief executive of Panama, his excellency, Domingo De Obaldia, as implied in the parliament of a friendly nation." The resolution further stated the "slanderous assertions" of Representative Rainey" deserve to be considered only because of the official character of the one who made them."

HOUSE "INSURGENTS."

Completed Plans for Real Battle of Their Campaign.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Having completed their plans for the real battle of their campaign, which will center around a resolution to be introduced to morrow, the house "insurgents" who are bittrely opposed to some of the present rules governing the lower branch of congress, to night held that last meeting and adjourned sine die. In all about twelve meetings have been held by the "insurgents" in their efforts to reach a definite conclusion as to exactly what they would demand in the way of changes in rules and as to how they could successfully train defiant batteries against their opponent stand-patters, friends of "Uncle Jose" and the present rules. The "insurgents" appear confident of success.

AVERT MOB VIOLENCE.

Officers Promise Speedy Trial and Punishment for Murderer.

Houston, Miss., Feb. 8.—While feeling is intense it is believed danger of mob violence to Rody Baskin, the self confessed slayer of Rev. W. T. Hudson, whose bullet riddled body was found half submerged in a pond near Houston Saturday night, has been averted through the announcement a speedy trial and equally speedy punishment will be meted out. Baskin, who is but 18 years of age, was arrested yesterday following the return of Hudson's watch by another negro, who declared it was given to him by Baskin.

SENATOR STEPHENSON.

Will File His Expense Account in Primary Election.

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 8.—Senator Stephenson will very shortly file his expense account over which there has been much speculation in connection with primary election in Wisconsin last fall. Stephenson was in Milwaukee to day on a business trip and left for his home in Mariette to night. Friends of Stephenson say he will appear voluntarily before the special investigating committee of the Wisconsin legislature, which expects shortly to investigate the senatorial primary, especially charges of alleged corruption in connection with the primary which were filed against him by Senator Blaine.

Constable Ferguson has returned from a trip to Centerville, where he has been serving subpoenas relative to the Ham case.

PRESENTS VIEW OF GOVERMENT

POLICY OF PRESIDENT IN JAPANESE QUESTION.

Set Forth in Telegram Sent Speaker of California Assembly—Legislation Advocated Will Produce Irritation.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 8.—"The policy of the administration is to combine the maximum of efficiency in achieving the real object which the people of the Pacific slope have at heart, with the minimum of friction and trouble, while misguided men who advocte such action as this against which I protest are following a policy which combines every minimum of efficiency with maximum of insult and which, while totally failing to achieve any real result for good, yet might accomplish an infinity of harm."

In this language President Roosevelt today in a long telegram to Speaker Stanton, of the California assembly, set forth the government's view of anti-Japanese school legislation now before that body. The president stated the bill gives just and grave cause for irritation and that the government would be obliged immediately to take action in the federal courts to test such legislation because it is held to be clearly a violation of treaty obligations of the United States. The president cites the workings of the present agreement with Japan showing it has resulted in more Japanese departing than coming in and declares figures showing this to be a fact are correct and cannot be impeached.

Washington, Feb. 8.—After a conference at the white house to day Interstate Commerce Commisioner Lane of California said:

"I have read the president's statement on the Japanese question and I think he is following a line of policy which will work out for the best interests of the Pacific coast. This is not a partisan question, but one involving a great national policy, and I believe that only the national government can deal adequotely with it. To my personal knowledge the president has been endeavoring for the past two years to meet the demand of our people in the most effective manner. I believe his policy has been a success thus far. It demands a longer test, but state co-operation is necessary to achieve the result we all desire.

"I am in favor of the exclusion of Japanese laborers so as to avoid another race question in this country, which is inevitable if they come in. I think the president's method of reaching this result is practical and will prove more effective than more agressive and radical measures at this time. As a labor leader in San Francisco recently said: 'We are in favor of exclusion and not for reprisal.' am for standing by the president because his policy has been of national importance and international good feeling."

DEFER ACTION

Agitation of Anti-Japanese Bill Postponed by California Senate.

Sacramento, Cal., Feb. 8.—Only five senators favored agitation of the anti-Japanese question when the matter was called up today by Senator Anthony, of San Francisco. The senate decided, 25 to 5, to defer until next Thursday, its action upon the report of the committee on executive communications, whch advises against legislation aimed at Japanese. Anthony's bill, providing for submitting to voters at the next state election the question of prohibiting Asiatic immigration was favorably reported.

DOUBT HAS ARISEN.

Body Found in Ruins May Not be That of Beckert.

Santiago, Chile, Feb. 8.—While is believed the body found in the ruins of the offices of the German legation here, which were destroyed by fire Friday, is that of Chancellor Beckert, some doubt has arisen, because a servant employed at the legation cannot be found. The body was burn beyond recognition, and the funeral, which was to have been held today, was postponed until further investigation is made.

D. A. R. MEETING.

There will be a business meeting of the Rev. James Caldwell Chapter D. A. R. at the home of Mrs. F. J. Waddell, 840 Grove street, this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

COL. MACKEY HERE FOR CONFERENCE

Representatives of Jacksonville Water Works Company From the East Will Meet in City Today.

Col. Mackey of Franklin, Penn., one of those principally interested in the Jacksonville Water works proposition, and who has been the principal factor in all of the negotiations between the city and the corporation, arrived here Monday and is a guest at the Dunlap hotel. He will be joined today by Mr. Joseph Reisman and Broderick Haskell, also of Franklin, Penn., who are interested in the success of the enterprise. These gentlemen will meet local representatives of the Jacksonville Water Works company today whn a conference will be held relative to existing conditions.

BASEBALL GOSSIP

The press of the Central association cities has been giving much space to fact and fiction incident to the passing days between seasons. It is a wholesome sign in many ways. It indicates a keen friendliness on the part of the press and a devouring appetite on the part of fans. It also evidences a growing interest in the league and the things that pertain to it. The Central association, as has been remarked before, is no longer an experiment in the baseball world. It is old enough as an organization to have passed the scothing syrup age and is a robust youngster bright with promise.

It is an old, but nevertheless true saying that figures will not lie, but liars will figure. The Kewanee dopster who dipped his quill and wrote the name of Jacksonville at the bottom of the list for the season of 1909 deserves a high place in the Ananias club. He is dealing with fiction pure and simple. He has even strained the imagination of sporting writers all over the circuit. Locally we shall hereafter view with doubt anything that originates in Kewanee and in the dope that eminates from that quarter as time flies on, we will make proper discount. Just write this in the tablet of your memory, Mr. Kewanee prophet, that Jacksonville will be in the running again this season. What position the Lunatics will occupy when the last game has been played we will not attempt to state. We do emphatically declare, however, and make bold to publish it to the world and do here and now by this writing, especially serve notice on the Kewanee scribe that the cellar position will not be filled by the diamond tossers who represent Jacksonville. Before any one from the Henry county city attempts to pick the final standing of the teams they should remember that it was only by the narrowest margin that they escaped the cellar site themselves last year and now to exhibit the boldness to place themselves in second place for 1909 is a simon pure case of monumental gall. Perhaps we have kicked up too much dust over a little matter, but the Sir Oracle that gives his dictum from Kewanee should be checked in his mad career before he hits the pipe again and our advise is to get another brand and buy it quick before making more prognostications.

There are others of the same opinion, in witness whereof is the following from the Burlington Hawkeye:

"The placing of Jacksonville at the bottom of the ladder by some guessers is entirely without warrant. Jacksonville will be as strong a team as it was last season and, and there is no reason for its falling by the way. It will at least be a strong second division team. To be sure, there has been some uncertainty concerning local conditions, and a certain amount of hesitation among the supporters of the game, but Manager Bente is the same of clever manipulator of conditions, and he may be depended upon to do better for his city that he is scheduled by some writers."

MADE FAST RUN.

Queenstown, Feb. 8.—The steamer Mauretania passed Daunts Rock lightship at 5:10 p. m. today, thus establishing a record for the long route. The liner covered the distance, 2,934 miles, at an average speed of 25.20 knots. The day's runs were 491, 605, 594, 567, 582; 95 miles to Daunts Rock. The passage was made in four days, 20 hours and 27 minutes, cutting the record nearly 9½ hours.

LETTER FROM ROOSEVELT

MRS. RHODES THANKED FOR DENYING STORY.

Another Chapter in Report President Struck Young Lady's Horse While Riding Past Her in Road Near Washington.

Los Angeles, Feb. 8.—Mrs. A. W. Rhodes of this city, whose daughter was mentioned in the Washington story which was widely circulated to the effect that President Roosevelt had struck a young lady's horse while riding past her in the read, has received the following letter from the president on the subject:

"My dear Mrs. Rhodes, I thank you for the letter of the 29th ulta and am glad to hear from you that your daughter denied the story I struck her horse. Of course I never struck her horse or any lady's horse. The whole stofy was so absusrd as not to be worth denial. Numerous stories of this kind are started from time to time by foolish or malicious people. Occasionally I am obliged to deny them, but as a rule I find it best simply to ignore them, because denying them calls attention to them and gives a chance to mischief makers to mislead well meaning people by further repetition of the stories."

NAVAL CHAIRMANSHIP

Interest Added to Question by Reference of President to Senator Perkins of California.

Washington, Feb. 8.—The fact that in the prospective reorganization of the senate committee Senator Perkins of California, will succeed Hale of Maine, as chairman of the committee on naval affairs, has had the effect of adding to interest felt in the president's reference to the California senator as one who has hampered the growth of the navy.

The subject was discussed to a greater or less extent to day in both houses of congress and it received especial attention from members of the California delegation. Representative Knowland of California, freely expressed the opinion that Perkins had not deserved the president's censure. He said:

"I have been inclined to uphold the president in his efforts to bring about an amicable settlement of the Japanese question, but I certainly deplore his attack upon Perkins, and I believe this is practically the sentiment of the California delegation. As ranking member of the senate committee on naval affairs no member in congress has been a stronger or more consistent friend of the navy than the senior senator from California. Instead of hampering development of the navy he has rendered conscientious service in bringing it up to its present high standard of efficiency. Perkins, together with other members of the California delegation, has been urging for the past two years retention of a formidable fleet in Pacific waters.

"If a seriousn situation has existed in our relations with Japan then it would appear to have been criminal to take the entire fleet rrom the Pacific waters. The president should be backed in his efforts to settle the Japanese matter by diplomacy, but we must avoid any indications of undue fear."

CENSUS APPOINTMENTS.

Civil Service Reform League Upholds President Roosevelt.

New York, Feb. 8.—The special committee on census of the national civil service reform league to day sent out lettersh to all congressional representatives and United States senators urging them to support President Roosevelt's veto of the Crumpacker census bill in the "interests of a clean and economical administration and fair and accurate census, untained by politics."

The letter states that appointments to census should be made in the regular manner under competition, and says fifty-one of the most prominent business and commercial organizations in twenty-six states, from California to Massachusetts, in addition to the National Board of Trade, have notified the committee expressing views on the method of appointment to the census.

DEATHS.

Des Moines, Iowa, Feb. 8.—Mrs. Mary Mallory, aged 102, died at Wyaconda, Mo., to day. She lived in Keokuk fifty years.

HIS SUBJECT WAS LINCOLN

Character of Great Emancipator Philosophically Considered in Masterful Presentation by Dr. R. O. Post.

At the Congregational church Sunday evening there was an audience of good proportions present to hear the pastor, Dr. R. O. Post, speak upon the character of Abraham Lincoln. The scripture lesson was the 52 chapter of Isaiah and in the reading of the lesson, Dr. Post stated that it was a scripture passage that he seldom read except on the occasion of the celebration of the communion service. He did not attempt to place the character of Lincoln along side that of the only perfect life as pictured in the chapter read, but he found elements that were paramount in the Christ life to be finitely paramount in the life of Lincoln and from theses comparisons was drawn the lesson of his life. Dr. Post made a careful analysis of the character of the man whose centennial celebration is attracting the attention of the world and he treated the subject philosophically. He expressed the hope that in the celebration there would result a consecration of the true Lincoln and not a desecration of his character by a misinterpretation of his greatness through the magnification of his virtues wrongly proportioned. He depricated any misconceptions that might naturally be expected to arise out of a popular celebration that would take place in the days to come.

Dr. Post placed Lincoln high among the mighty men of time and spoke especially of his great capacity for feeling the weight of humanity's burden. All great characters in history have felt the weight of society's demands which have been met and satisfied through the medium of the men who have served their time and generation and in such a sense they have been men "of sorrow and acquainted with grief." Lincoln came to himself, declared Dr. Post, in 1854 when the injustice of the Kansas-Nebraska bill aroused in him that sense of justice which was a crowning feature of his career. It led him to give expression to that perfection of character that has made passible such mortal praise and such universal recognition as a man of greatness, not only in achievement, but in character. Some had attempted to explain much of Lincoln's broadness of vision by the fact that he was not bound down by the narrowness of any pulpit platitudes or division lines of sect, but that he stood free from all conventional fences that tend to mark mental boundary lines and his natural endowments were allowed absolute freedom so that his comprehension was superior in proportion to the freedom it enjoyed. There are none however, but would wish that Lincoln might had known the advantages of the Sunday school or been versed in the graces of culture and refinement.

The almost oppressive sense of duty which was felt by Lincoln from whose dictates he never wavered after he reached the period in his career indicated above, coupled with broad sympathy, indeed zeal to alleviate the needs of his fellow man, made him rise to a fame undimmed by time and only magnified with the passing of the decades. Dr. Post spoke of the fifteen different tongues in which the life of Lincoln had been translated and called attention to the fact that the demand for Lincoln biographies and Lincoln literature was increasing with each year. It was indeed a luminous picture of the life and character of Lincoln that Dr. Post pictured and the presentation was a masterfu effort.

WILL CONTEST DIVORCE SUIT

RUTH BRYAN LEAVITT'S HUSBAND HEARD FROM.

Brands Charges Given Out From Lincoln as False—Starts for America Today—Sent Wife Money Regularly.

Paris, Feb. 8.—William H. Leavitt, the artist, saw for the first time today, the charges made against him by his wife, Ruth Bryan Leavitt, in her suit for divorce as outlined in dispatches from Lincoln, Neb. Leavitt therein is described as an improvident Bohemian, and it is said that Bryan found Ruth and the children in absolute want in Denver.

The description of Leavitt as a Bohemian amuses his friends in Paris. Ever since his marriage he has kept up a studio at Newport, where his wife refused to live, fearing that her residence in the city of millionaires might injure her father's political chances for the presidency. In Paris he moves in the best social and artistic circles.

Calls Her Charges Lie.

He said today:

"Every one of the charges given out from Lincoln is a lie, and Ruth's letters to me and her father's prove it now. I intend to contest this suit and they may be sure that I will fight to the end. One thing I must say is that I don't think the suit was brought by Ruth of her own free will. There is undue influence on the part of others. I understand perfectly well that I am going into a fight, in which the odds are against me, for the suit is to be brought in Nebraska.

"For lawyer, Ruth has her uncle, Allen, who is chairman of the Democratic state committee, and his partner, Talbot, who holds a similar position on the Republican state committee. But I shall get justice in the end.

"I see that they have dropped the charge of desertion. That is well, for they know that is would not stand for a moment in the face of the evidence I have. The charge of nonsupport is another baseless lie.

Says He Sent Money Regularly.

"It is a lie, too, that Mr. Bryan ever found Ruth in want in Denver. She has always had money from me, and on Jan. 31, I sent as usual her six months' allowance, a draft on the Franco-American bank of Paris for $2,500. The Lincoln statement says they do not know my address, so they had to serve notice by publication. This is another falsehood. Ruth wrote me weekly. Bryan wrote, and even Allen had my address when he wrote me asking to consent to a snapshot divorce. My witnesses from Denver and from New Orleans will give a very different account of this matter.

"I say nothing against Ruth. Until I spoke to the Sunday Examiner correspondent I have never said a word in reply to all rumors and allegations, but I shall not stand for any more. For the sake of my son and daughter, and for my own sake, I cannot permit this unjust divorce to be granted on grounds both false and slanderous."

Starts for America Tuesday

Leavitt would have left Paris by Saturday's steamer had he not been forced to stay over a few days to complete arrangements for the French salon in America, of which he is president. Five hundred pictures of leading French painters will be shipped next week and the French salon in America opens March 4 in Washington. In the meanwhile Leavitt's big canvas, "The Last Supper," has been packed for shipment to England. It will be on exhibition at the Walker Art gallery in Liverpool and afterward in the municipal galleries at Glasgow, Belfast, Manchester, Dublin and other cities before taken to New York.

Leavitt will attend the opening of his exhibition in Liverpool Tuesday and then sail the next day for New York, where, after a conference with his lawyers, he will go direct to Lincoln, Neb.

The primary election will be held March 9, and the last day for the filing of petitions will be Feb. 22. The following is a complete list of the petitioners and the offices for which they are candidates:

How a Jacksonville Citizen Found Complete Freedom From Kidney Troubles.

If you suffer from backache—
From urinary disorders—
From any disease of the kidneys,
Be cured to stay cured.
Doan's Kidney pills make lasting cures.
Jacksonville people testify.
Here's one case of it:

John Grogan, retired, living at 861 North Prairie street, Jacksonville, Ill., says: "I made a statement eight years ago for publication, telling the public that Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Hatch's drug store, had cured me of kidney trouble, after many months of doctoring and the use of various remedies had failed to help me. Now after a period of years, I take pleasure in saying that I have not had any reason to change my opinion regarding this remedy. I have not had an attack of kidney complaint since."

REPORT MADE BY FINANCE COMMITTEE

Chairman S. R. Capps Tells Grace Church People That $20,000 of Bona Fide Subscriptions Have Been Raised for New Structure.

Sunday was a day of special interest at Grace M. E. church. The attendance at both morning church service and at Sunday school was large, the former nearly filling and the latter crowding all of the available seats. A report by S. R. Capps, chairman of the general executive committee, and also of the finance committee for the new church structure had been announced for the morning service, and it proved to be of a most encouraging nature. Rev. Joseph C. Nate, the pastor, briefly outlined the plan of organization for the new church and introduced Mr. Capps for his report.

The latter stated that only a preliminary canvass has as yet been made, largely among official members and those who might make the larger gifts to the enterprise. It has been felt that if, from these sources, a total of $20,000 or $25,000 were secured the large congregation and membership of the church would see that complete and early victory is really possible and will take up their own part of the battle with all the more faith and joy. Mr. Capps was happy, therefore, to be able to report that the preliminary canvass, as so far made, shows a total of $20,000 in actual bona fide subscriptions all signed or properly certified and all of unquestionable full worth. This amount does not include any society or department of the church. It had been thought that only $19,275 could be announced at this time, but a member had voluntarily tendered his pledge of $700 just before the service opened, while another promptly assumed the remaining $25. Mr. Capps further announced that some seven or eight of those who will gladly be among the larger givers are now determining the proper amounts of their gifts and that these together with others yet to be consulted will doubtless bring the total of the preliminary canvass up to $25,000. The chairman referred especially to the willing spirit evidenced among all with whom the committee consulted, as well as a spirit of evident self-sacrifice among all.

Mr. Capps referred in a manner which deeply touched many present to the love which many had for Grace church by reason of long association, but said that there was among them a reason which he believed to be even a deeper motive, which is the church's evident mission in the future and their interest in the young life of the congregation now coming on to take their places in that future and to provide whom with an adequate church home and facilities was both a duty and a pleasure. The report was concluded by an expression of Mr. Capps' complete confidence in early victory. The conclusion of his remarks was met, to the evident surprise of both the pastor and himself, with a hearty round of applause, which not even the surroundings of the morning church hour was able effectively to repress. The morning sermon by the pastor was from John 19:19, Three Messages of the Cross. At its close three persons were received into membership in the church by letter.

The statement made by Mr. Capps was very effective in that several additional sums were reported Monday.

The finance committee for the new church consists of S. R. Capps, as chairman, A. C. Wadsworth, Judge T. B. Orear, President J. R. Harker, J. N. Ward, H. J. Rodgers and J. J. Reeve, secretary.

HERE'S GOOD ONE SURE ENOUGH

Apropos Lincoln Celebration Comes Long Ago Opinion Regarding Springfield—Don't Tell "Billy" Sunday.

Among the numerous visitors on one of the president's reception days were a party of congressmen among whom was the Hon. Thomas Shannon of California, says an exchange. Soon after the customary greeting, Mr. Shannon said:

"Mr. President, I met an old friend of yours in California last summer, Thomas Campbell, who had a great deal to say of your Springfield life." "Ah," returned Mr. Lincoln, "I am glad to hear of him. Campbell used to be a dry fellow," he continued. "For a time he was secretary of state.

"One day, during the lesislative vacation, a meek, cadaverous looking man, with a white neck, introduced duced himself to him at his office and stating that he had been informed that Mr. Campbell had the letting of the assembly chamber, said that he wished to secure it, if possible, for a course of lectures he desired to deliver in Springfield. 'May I ask,' said the secretary, 'what is to be the subject of your lectures?' 'Certainly,' was the reply, with a very solemn expression of countenance. 'The course I wish to deliver is on the second coming of our Lord.' 'It is of no use,' said Campbell, 'if you will take my advice you will not waste your time in this city. It is my private opinion that if the Lord has been in Springfield once, he will not come the second time!'"

S.S.S. CURES BLOOD POISON

No case of contagious blood poison is ever cured until the last particle of the virus has been removed from the circulation. The least taint left in the blood will sooner or later, cause a fresh outbreak of the trouble, with all its hideous and destructive symptoms of ulcerated mouth and throat, copper colored splotches, falling hair, sores and ulcers, etc. No other medicine so surely cures contagious blood poison as S. S. S. It goes down into the blood and steadily and surely drives out every particle of the infection. It absolutely and perfectly purifies the blood, and leaves this vital fluid as fresh, rich and healthy as it was before the destructive virus of contagious blood poison entered the circulation. S. S. S. quickly takes effect on the blood, and gradually the symptoms disappear, the health is improved, the skin cleared of all spots, sores and other blemishes, the hair stops coming out, the mouth and throat heal and when S. S. S. has cleansed the system of the poison no trace of the disease is left. S. S. S. cures contagious blood poison because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers, tested and proven for more than forty years. Book on this disease with suggestions for home treatment, and any medical advice sent free to all who write.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Addresses by Rev. F. A. McCarty and Rev. C. R. Morrison—Audiences Large at Sunday Services.

Two meetings at the same hour in the Y. M. C. A. building Sunday afternoon made things appear rather lively. The boys met in the west room on the first floor known as the social room, and the men on the second floor in the assembly room. Both meetings were well attended. The boys were addressed by Rev. C. R. Morrison, pastor of Brooklyn Methodist church, who gave an excellent talk on Lincoln.

The men were addressed by Rev. F. A. McCarty, pastor of Centenary church. His subject was "The Call of Christ." It was a splendid inspiring appeal to men to give themselves over to an active Christian life as the only life which will bring ture thappiness.

Thomas Andrews a new member of the association, presided at the organ and gave splendid satisfaction. Jerry Cox, president of the E. D. Y. club, presided over the meeting. The Y. M. C. A. meetings are always full of good healthy Christian activity and appeal to men and boys. The men's metings will be held at the building until further notice. A special Lincoln day will be the feature for next Sunday and the building will undoubtedly be crowed.

This is "Right of Way Week" with the associations all over America and the Every Day in the Year club are rushing the subscribption list of the Association Men, the Y. M. C. A. magazine, which has a special Bible reading for every day in the year. The price this week will be just half the regular price and an effort will be made to get all association men and boys to take and read it. Hand your name in at the office, don't wait to be called on for a subscription.

THE CHRISTIAN KNIGHT.

Rev. J. V. Whiting Gives First of Series of Sunday Night Sermons.

"The Christian Knight" was the subject of the sermon by Rev. J. V. Whiting at the First Baptist church Sunday night. This was the first sermon of a series and a good audience greeted the pastor, who was forceful in his presentation of the subject and made a strong plea for bravery and fortitude in the Christian warfare. He took occasion to allude to the life of Abraham Lincoln. He said that it was always a wonder to him how Lincoln, with all the limitations of education and other hindrances ever reached the white house. He said that God must have had a purpose in it, for He seemed to carry him right over the heads of the politicians of that day and over every barrier, and land him in that exalted position where honor and glory crowned his efforts. He stated that the day had gone by for cowards in the Christian life and that fighters in both secular and religious life was what men and women admire. These were the people that accomplished things.

THE BOSTON BELES.

Spectacular scenic effects, gorgeous costumes, pretty girls with tuneful voices and incidents that hesitate within bounds—these are a few of the features of Harry Hasting's Boston Belles Burlesquers at the Grand next Wednesday night, Feb. 10.

The extravaganza throughout implies many possibilities, all of which are realized. Dances, part songs and choruses follow in rapid succession. The specialties are striking, particularly that of Zenda, a French physical culturist, who presents the most marvelous performance of its kind ever seen in this country.

TIME

Is the One Principal Item in

FIRE FIGHTING

The best fire department on earth is SOMETIMES slow in reaching a fire and making connections. The BEST water system is SOMETIMES short of pressure. In Jacksonville, buildings within three blocks of the engine house have burned down, that might have been saved with 25c worth of chemicals, one charge from a hand extinguisher.

Chemical Extinguishers are NEVER slow and their prssure is NEVER uncertain. They throw a 50 foot stream that no fire can resist. They put it WHERE it is needed, WHEN it is needed, AS it is needed. They are never in some other part of the city, fighting somebody else's fire, hen YOU need them.

The TIME to provide them is BEFORE you have a fire, and before you forget all about it again—NOW—for instance.

You are cordially invited to inspect an unusually attractive display of Pickard china and Libbey cut glass,

Rayhill's China Store

The formation of the Young Women's club, as outlined by the capable writer, Miss Grassly, in Sunday's Journal, is a move in the right direction and one which all should foster. Much has been done for the young men and boys and none too much. The young are worth saving and if our young men and boys are to be kept from vice and reared for usefulness and good they must have suitable surroundings; and why not the girls? The plan indicated in the excellent article mentioned is one which must commend itself to all right minded persons and the Journal will gladly see it succeed beyond even the most sanguine expectations of its founders. A glance at the personnel of its officers shows that its affairs are in capable hands and that its beginning will be all right and all will hope for its continued prosperity and increase in usefulness. The Journal will always be glad to tender its aid to this worthy object.

It is a gratification to note the action of the trustees of Passavant hospital regarding a home for the nurses of the institution. Gratifying because it shows that the worthy enterprise is in a healthy condition and is growing so that it needs more room for its increasing patronage. More and more is it coming to be realized that money devoted to the care of the sick or wounded at a hospital is well expended for there they have the skill experience and appliances for the best of care, treatment and the economy of it is at once apparent. At home the skill and attention secured at a hospital would cost well night twice to three times as much as at the institution and in addition would involve much care and labor on the part of the family. At the hospital visitors are excluded from the sick room on the orders of the attending physician, but at home it is often a delicate matter to ask good friends to remain away from the bedside of those whom they esteem. It is hard to refuse a sick person some greatly desired delicacy which may be injurious but the trained nurse will kindly, but firmly refuse and so the list of reasons might be increased indefinitely. Let us all work for the hospital, remembering it is the especial charge of the churches of the city.

FUNERALS.

Mathews.

The last sad rites over the mortal remains of Richard T. Mathews, were said Monday afternoon from his late residence, 604 South Main street, in charge of Dr. W. F. Short, assisted by Rev. James Foster, pastor of the Pisgah Presbyterian church, in the presence of a large assemblage of friends, who gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to one held in high esteem.

Music was furnished by Miss Sarajane Mathews, who sang very impressively, "The Home Land" and "Nearer My God to Thee." Mrs. Frank Vickery acted as accompanist.

Many beautiful floral offerings were sent by loving friends, among the designs being a handsome wreath by the members of the Moscow Bay club, of which Mr. Mathews was a member, also the Elks showed their sympathy to their fellow comrade, by a profusion of cut flowers. These were cared for by Mrs. Nannie Mathews, Miss Babb, Miss Alice Mathews and Miss May Mathews.

Tribue by F. L. Sharpe.

After the services by the officiating ministers, F. L. Sharpe, in behalf of the Elks, of which organization the deceased was a member, spoke feelingly of the departed. He said in part:

Brothers and friends: Resting in this beautiful casket, surrounded by fragrant flowers, and loving friends, is the mortal remains of a dear brother and true friend. His spirit has gone away, to somewhere in the great beyond with the realm of the Grand Exalted Ruler of the universe. About one year ago, we stood beside the bier of one we loved and that he loved most tenderly, and who knows, but those two spirits are now holding loving communion with each other. Who knows but that they are singing our opening ode.

"Great Ruler of the universe;
All seeing and benign;
Look down upon and bless our work,
And be all glory thine."

"It is impossisble for anyone to appreciate our departed friend, except we that have known him long and well. He was too unassuming and modest in life, for the public to know his many good qualities. But it seems to me, that we could have no better exemplification of the cardinal principles of our order—charity, justice, brotherly love and fidelity, than was his life. He exemplified charity, by granting every man freedom of opinion and hearkening to the cry of want or suffering; justice, by his dealings with his fellowmen; brotherly love, in his love for mankind; fidelity, he never betrayed a friend. Many other noble qualities were his loyalty, truth, courage, patience. He gave the best of his life for his country, leaving a home of comfort and luxury, marching and fighting through southern swamps, sleeping unprotected under southern stars, shedding his blood upon southern field, that we might be one nation under one flag. The remainder of his life he gave to his family and friends. Truth, no one ever questioned the word of Richard Mathews. Courage, I have said, during his life, that I believed he feared nothing, and yet a voice said to me, "yes, he fears to do wrong."

"But his voice and his hand were always raised against that which he believed was not right. Patience, during long years of his suffering he complained not. On the bed of anguish and suffering he was cheerful. What a noble life—small of statue, weak in physique, strong in manliness. His life is gone; his influence remains with us. My brothers, let us emulate this character, so that when we are called home, it may be said of us, a man has departed."

After the house services the remains were taken to Diamond Grove cemetery, where they were placed in the receiving valut. The members of the G. A. R. had charge of the service there. The bearers were Messrs T. B. Orear, F. M. Morton, W. L. Fay, F. L. Sharpe, Ferdinand Strawn and S. T. Anderson.

Smith.

The funeral services of Mrs. Mary Smith were conducted Monday morning at 10:30 from the Jordan Street Presbyterian church, in charge of the pastor, Rev. J. W. Eltzholtz, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. Music was furnished by Mrs. James Scott, Mrs. Jennie DeFreitas, Walter Vieira and John Vasconcellos. They were many beautiful flowers and these were in charge of Mrs. Sophia Lee and Mrs. John Day.

The remains were laid to rest in Jacksonville cemetery and the bearers were George Petti, Antonio Vieira, Joseph DeSilva, Manuel Rodrigues, A. E. Nunes and Antonio Baptist.

TWENTY FIRST ANNIVERSARY

Monday Conversation Met at Home of Mrs. Fred Rowe—List of Toasts and Speakers—Delightful Evening.

The Monday Conversation club celebrated its twenty-first aniversary last night at the home of Mrs. Fred Rowe on West State street. Mrs. Rowe threw open the doors of her beautiful home to the members and friends, who numbered fifty in all. As is well known, the membership of the club is limited to twenty and their meetings in every sense of the word are purely conversational in character.

Last night the guests gathered at 6:30 o'clock and seated at small tables, decorated with carnations, red and white, the flower of the organization, enjoyed a supper, Misses Mary Wadsworth, Eleanor Capps, Millicent Rowe, Helen Lambert and Lillian Davis, serving in a most acceptable manner.

After the supper, Mrs. W. A. Furr, president of the club, efficiently and cleverly filled the position of toastmistress and the following were the toasts and the speakers. All the toasts were happpy responses and fromed a pleasing part of the evening's program, which was concluded by a social hour, and the anniverasry proved one of the best meetings in the history of the club.

Our Associate Members—Mrs. E. C. Lambert.

Our New Members—Mrs. Jean Anderson.

Reading of poem of Mrs. Martha Capps Oliver, an honorary member of the club—Mrs. Lanning.

Charles Darwin—Mrs. David Reid.

Abraham Lincoln—Dr. J. R. Harker.

The ladies feel much indebted to Dr. Harker for his splendid address on Lincoln. He held Lincoln up as the ideal for the boy and young man and the greatness of his thought and spirit should be imitated in every life.

PAID TRIBUTE TO LINCOLN

SERVICE IN HIS MEMORY AT WESTMINSTER CHURUCH.

Rev. L. H. Davis in Glowing Address Points Out the Elements of Greatness in the Martyr President's Character.

At Westminster church Sunday evening a service appropriate to the hundredth anniversary of the birth of Lincoln was held under the auspices of the Men's Brotherhood of the church. A picture of Lincoln was conspicuous and flags were draped about the pulpit. The choir, under the leadership of Prof. Songer, furnished special music of a patriotic character and the hymns were of that type. The address on Lincoln delivered by the pastor, Rev. L. H. Davis, was a splendid and eloquent tribute to the greatest of Americans. The sermon showed a deep and careful study into the life of Lincoln and of the motives and characteristics which resulted in his acts. The minister considered the causes of Lincoln's greatness which was not from heredity, environment, preparation or practice of law, nor his debates with Douglas. The speaker then pointed out three things which marked the greatness of Lincoln, the first of which was his statesmanship, and it was proven that his imperishable honor as a statesman, is in having preserved the union and in having freed the slaves for the good of the union. Other evidences of his greatness were shown as follows:

Second—Lincoln was great as a leader of men.

From his youth by reason of his stature and his great physical prowess he was a leader among the pioneers. At the bar he was a leader. In politics he was a leader. The years saw the development of a master mind. The growth and development of his mental and moral powers especially during his term of office was marvelous. He knew men and called to his aid three great leaders, Seward, Chase and Stanton. History has recorded how Lincoln bore himself during those four frightful years; that he was the real president, the responsible head of the government through it all he listened to all advice, heard all parties, then always realizing his responsibility to God decided every great question for himself. Morse says that Lincoln was not a brilliant man, but he was a cool, dispassionate, self-possessed with extraordinary degree of patience and courage—he was a masterful man. Among the first things which Mr. Lincoln had to do was without antagonism to indicate to Mr. Seward and Mr. Chase and Mr. Stanton that they were to be not only in name, but also in fact, his secretaries and that he was in fact, as well as by title, president. That would not have been possible with a small man. The conception and the execution of the war was his. He laid the whole matter before his cabinet, in which his mind was made up and asked of them only suggestions as to details. He chose the time and the circumstances under which the emancipation should be proclaimed and when it should take effect. His correspondence with McClelland and his appointment of Grant reveal him as a stratagist of high order. He was true as steel to his generals, but changed them as he found them inadequate. He had a genius for leadership, but it was a leadership marked with great sincerity, disinterestedness and devotion—open minded to the consideration of all interests, free from petty jealousy, full of moral courage. The greatness of his leadership appears in this in the greatness of the issue, to which he led the nation through four terrible years of war, to days of peace.

Third—In the last place—Lincoln was Great as a Man.

Lincoln was great in his original capacity of brain and heart and life. He was honest. He was clear visioned. He loved truth and hated a lie. He was strong of will and unwavering in purpose, when he saw the right. It has been truly and beautifully said, "That he had a lofty qualities of spiritual insight, of moral conviction, of solemn resolution, of undying courage, of complete devotion and of faith and hope unfailing. He saw deeply, he felt intensely, he spoke at times with the voice of a poet-prophet."

Again—Mr. Lincoln loved men and in return men loved him. Position, nor place, nor power separated him from the common people. Carpenter the painter of the famous picture of the cabinet—who spent months in his office in the white house, says—that Lincoln's face was the saddest he ever looked upon and at times he could not look upon his features marked by care and anxiety without weeping. His secretary tells how night after night, when all had retired but himself and the president, he, the president, walked the floor hour after hour alone, weighing some great question of state or studying the map of some battlefield or studying the movement of the army and when he came back at an early hour in the morning the great president was there alone, having thought out during the night, while others slept, some great problem of state and with direction ready for the next move of some general. "No ruler ever manifested such sympathy, such tenderness, such charity." It was the complaint of Stanton that he could never get men who failed to do their whole duty shot. His letters of sympathy to sorrowing mothers fill pages in the records of the great war.

Third—But greater than all was Mr. Lincoln's trust and confidence in God. He was a man of prayer. He was a reader and a student of the Bible. His trust in God was absolute. In one of his letters dated September, 1862, is a sample. He writes, "We are indeed going through a great trial—a fiery trial. In the very responsible position in which I happen to be placed, being a humble instrument in the hands of our Heavenly Father, as I am, and as we all are, to work out His great purpose, I have desired that all my works and acts may be according to His will, and that it might be so, I have sought His aid; but if, after endeavoring to do the best in the light which He afforded me, I find my efforts fail, I must believe that, for some purpose unknown to me, He wills it otherwise." I firmly believe that His Premonitions or intuitions of the outcome of great battles, as for example, the great battle of Gettysburg came to him as the result of prayer. Men will never forget the great words of the Gettysburg speech, nor the words of the great inaugural, when he said, "Fondly we hope—fervently do we pray—that this mighty scourge of war may speedily pass away. Yet—if God wills that it continue until all the wealth piled up by the bondmans 250 years of unrequited toil shall be sunk and until every drop of blood drawn by with the lash shall be paid by another drawn with the sword, as was said three thousand years ago, so still it must be said, "The judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether." With malice toward none; with charity for all; with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nation's wounds; to care for him who shall have bourn the battle, and for his widow, and his orphan—to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves and with all nations.

As Joseph Choate said: His prayer was answered. The forty days of remaining life were crowned with great historic events. He lived to see his proclamation of emancipation embodied in an amendment of the constitution, adopted by congress and submitted to the states for ratification. The mighty scourge of war did speedily pass away, for it was given him to witness the surrender of the rebel army and the fall of their capital and the old flag—dear to every true American heart, waving in triumph over a united country without a slave-holder and without a slave. The assassin's bullet prematurely silenced the brain of the great statesman, the heart of the great leader, the soul of the great man, and in his translation the south lost its best friend, the north its greatest statesman and the friends of freedom and of justice the world over, their noble champion.

Not heredity, not environment, not training, nor experience, nor place, nor opportunity, can explain Abraham Lincoln. He was God's gift to the nation. He was God gift to the slave. He was God's gift to mankind the world over.

WORTH MOUNTAINS OF GOLD

During Change of Life, says Mrs. Chas. Barclay

Graniteville, Vt. — "I was passing through the Change of Life and suffered from nervousness and other annoying symptoms, and I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved worth mountains of gold to me, as it restored my health and strength. I never forget to tell my friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me during this trying period. Complete restoration to health means so much to me that for the sake of other suffering women I am willing to make my trouble public so you may publish this letter." — MRS. CHAS. BARCLAY, R.F.D., Graniteville, Vt.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine we know of has such a record of cures of female ills as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 30 years it has been curing female complaints such as inflammation, ulceration, local weaknesses, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration, and it is unequalled for carrying women safely through the period of change of life. It costs but little to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and, as Mrs. Barclay says, it is "worth mountains of gold" to suffering women.

INTERESTING DOCUMENTS

Various Papers and Articles Kindly Loaned the Journal by Esteemed Friends.

A number of valued friends have kindly favored the Journal with papers and other articles of especial interest at the present time and it is a cause of regret that more extended notice is not practicable. L. A. Craig of 1060 South East street has left a copy of the Chicago Weekly Press and Tribune of Aug. 26, 1858. The paper is very long, has nine columns, fine print, few advertisements, and is bristling all over with Republican doctrines. It has at its masthead the ticket which reads:

For United States Senator.
Hon. Abraham Lincoln.
For State Treasurer.
James Miller.
For Sup't. of Public Instruction.
Newton Bateman.
For Congress 2nd District.
John F. Farnsworth.

The paper goes on to tell of a grand mass meeting at Havana to which 2,000 people went and heard Hon. Abe Lincoln and gave him cheer after cheer, as he dealt his sledge hammer blows. Another article has for headlines, the following:

Signs of Fright; Douglas in a Tremor; Reconciliation With Old Buck Attempted.

Another has for headlines: Douglas at Lewiston; A Split in the Fulton County Democracy; The Little Giant Put Through a Catechism; He Afterwards meets With an Accident; A Painful Catastrophe With Fireworks.

In another part of the paper is an account of the bi-ennial convention of instructors of the deaf and dumb and the treatment accorded the visitors by Dr. Gillett, Dr. McFarland of the insane hospital and by the citizens of Jacksonville is highly commended.

The paper has so many good things in it that it is hard to omit any of them and to any elderly Republican it would prove immensely interesting reading.

Another esteemed friend has left a copy of the Chicago Weekly Tribune of Oct. 20, 1864. The paper had a strange history. He had kept it carefully until by some accident his wife used it to place under a carpet and when next they cleaned house he rescued his valuable relic with holes made by carpet tacks in it. The paper has the national ticket:

For President.
Abraham Lincoln.
For Vice President
Andrew Johnson
For Governor
Richard J. Oglesby.
For Lieut. Governor.
William Bross.
For Secretary of State.
Sharon Tyndale.
For Auditor
O. H. Miner.
For State Treasurer
James H. Beveridge.
For Sup't. Public Iinstruction.
Newton Bateman.
For Member of Congress 8th District.
Shelby M. Cullom.

Col. F. T. Sherman, an exchanged union prisoner, tells harrowing tales of the treatment of federal prisoners in southern places of bondage. Too well are these known already to need repeating.

One article tells enthusiastically of a union victory at the polls in Indiana, when Colfax and others were chosen by the people to congress, and Oliver P. Morton was selected by the people for governor.

An article quoted from the Savannah, Ga., Republican, tells how the southerners in their dire distress for food had learned how to utilize the seed of Chinese sugar cane in the manufacture of flour which made very good flapjacks.

An interesting article refers to the difficulties in Tennessee, where Governor Andrew Johnson was earning his nomination for vice president, by requiring all who would vote to take the following oath:

"I do solemnly swear that I will support the constitution of the United States and defend it against the assaults of its enemies."

It seems well nigh credible that in Chicago at that time could be found a paper containing the following:

"It is idle to explain that the practical effect of the oath will be to exclude from the polls all who are not partisans of Lincoln and Johnson. If the governor had ordered an election and prescribed an oath commiting those who subscribed to it to vote the Abolition ticket as a condition of voting he would not more plainly have declared that none but members of that party should take part in that election."

The endearing terms used toward the supporters of that paper will not be repeated, for the war is over, but now it reads like a dream that men could have been found at the north, after the victories at Vicksburg and Gettysburg, who said at the Chicago convention with oaths: "We must put a stop to this war; we must have McClellan nominated." Many more things in the interesting paper bring vividly to mind the days that have gone by and it would be pleasant to devote much more space to them, did the pressure on the columns of the Journal permit it.

The Journal's honored president, Mr. Hawes Yates, has left a handbill about twelve by sixteen inches, giving the order of the procession at the funeral of President Lincoln. It mentions Major General Joseph Hooker, marshal in chief; Brig. Gen. John Cook and staff; Brev. Brig. Gen. James Oakes and staff. The whole pageant was divided into eight divisions, each in command of a special marshal with a long list of aides. The divisions and marshals were as follows: First, Col. C. M. Prevost, 16th regiment, V. R. C.; second, Major F. Bridgman, pay department U. S. A.; third, Col. Dudley Wickersham, 1st army corps; here came officiating clergymen, surgeons and physicians of the deceased, guard of honor, the hearse and the bearers. Fourth divisions, Col. Speed Butler; fifth division, Hon. George L. Huntington; sixth division, Hon. William H. Herndon; seventh division, Hon. Harmon G. Reynolds; eighth division, Hon. John W. Smith.

Then follow directions, formation and movements, description of sashes of marshals, time of starting and order of procession. The whole is signed by John Cook, Brig. Gen. commanding district of Illinois.

James Oakes, Brevet Brig. Gen., U. S. A.

John A. McClernand, grand marshal.

J. H. Crim, 306 East College avenue, has loaned a copy of the Illinois State Journal of April 15, 1865. With columns draped in black it issues the mournful tidings of the death of Abraham Lincoln. Folded with it is a fine portrait of the handsome John Wilkes Booth, the insane slayer of the great and good man. The paper contains a graphic account of the shooting of the president in Ford's theatre, the attack on Secretary Seward and the feverish condition of things at Washington. Along with these sad tidings is the rejoicing over the fall of the rebel stronghold, Richmond, the capture of Lee's army and the suspension of the draft. Many columns are devoted to an account of affairs at Washington, the escape of the assassins, the careful guarding of the officials of the government, the hurrying to and fro of troops and the efforts being made to overtake and capture the evil doers.

SUNDAY SCHOOL MAKES PLEDGE

Official Board of Grace Church Organization Takes Important Action —Promise Sum of $700 for New Church.

The Sunday school board of Grace M. E. church held a delightful and important session in the church parlors last evening. The board, which consists of all the teachers and officers of the school and the Sunday school committee of the quarterly conference, were the guests for the occasion of Superintendent J. W. Breckon and the assistant superintendents, Dr. H. L. Griswold and Mrs. Thomas V. Hopper. The members to the number of some twenty-five gathered at the church at 5:30 o'clock and after a time spent in a social way were invited to the tables where a splendid dinner was served. At the close of the dinner the board was called into regular business session, the pastor of the church, Rev. Joseph C. Nate, presiding. The subject for discussion was the special needs of the Sunday school in connection with the new church building. The Sunday school has felt the present crowded and inconvenient arrangements of the church more than any other department, and the discussion of all the teachers was most hearty, hopeful and enthusiastic. It was found that many of the classes are already gathering funds against the anticipated help which the Sunday school will render to the enterprise, and after this situation was reported and developed it was voted by a unanimous, rising vote to pledge the Sunday school for the sum of $700 for the new church. After a hearty vote of thanks to the chief officers of the school as hosts of the occasion, the meeting adjourned.

THIS is the time of the year that a man has occasion to wear a full dress or Tuxedo Suit for different functions, and we wish to remind the men of Jacksonville and this vicinity that we sell the celebrated

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Is Rivaled by Human Hair Where Dandruff is Eradicated.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

"The Coast Country is immense. That expresses it in a word. It is simply immense. I think it is one of the finest countries in the world, and the more I see of it the more I think so. It seems to me that you can raise anything here. Your soil is as good as our soil in Iowa. If I were a young man I'd pack my grip and come to Texas. The condition and the prospects for development are such that I could not afford to remain away."—oHn. James Wilson, United States Secretary of Agriculture.

Eye Strain Headache

Toledo, Ohio, lady tells how headaches disappeared with the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

Women who use their eyes much for reading or fine needlework are sure to find eyestrain and nervous, sick headaches among the first symptoms when the nervous system gets run down.

As a positive cure for headaches, not mere relief but cure, Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills stand without a rival because they get at the cause of the trouble and build up the nervous system to health and strength.

Mrs. K. Kramer, 31 Summit St., Toledo, Ohio, states: "My trouble was good, hard, nervous, sick headaches and neuralgia of the eyes, all due to a run-down system. I heard of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills and obtained splendid results from their use. The headaches and neuralgia dissapeared when my system was built up; the nerves are steady and my whole system wonderfully benefited."

The portrait and signature of A. W. Chase M. D. the famous Receipt Book author, are on every box. 50 cents at all dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

DEATH RECORD

Badenoch.

G. S. Russel received word Monday of the death of his grandson, George Scott Badenoch, aged 4 years, who died at 5:45 o'clock Monday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Badenoch, of Chicago. The child died of rheumatic fever and had been ill for about two weeks. No further particulars have been received.

Dawson.

Jesse Dawson, one of the pioneer settlers of Scott county, passed away at his late home, one mile north of Winchester, Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the advanced aged of 93 years.

Mr. Dawson had been in feeble health for the past twelve months on account of his age, and his wonderful vitality was shown during that period of time. He was born in Georgetown, Del., Dec. 16, 1816, and came to Scott county in 1837, when 21 years of age. One can scarcely imagine the condition of the country at that early date. It was indeed a wilderness, so to speak, and Mr. Dawson was one of the few men who, with strong faith and undaunted zeal, set about to make for himself a home in the far away western country. The evolution of machinery in the use of farming during that time cannot be conceived by the modern generation, of young folk. Mr. Dawson was able by his thrift to save and at his death was able to look over many acres of land that had been faithfully and honestly acquired. Mr. Dawson, politically was a Republican, although not having held any public office was always interested in the affairs of the country and was well posted on the topics of the day.

He was married Aug. 20, 1845, to Ann Groom, who passed away April 18, 1882. The following children survive: Mrs. Jane McDonald, Miss Hannah Dawson, Mrs. Alice McLaughlin, Albert and Ornsby Dawson, all of Scott county; Newton of Exeter, and Henry of Springfield. One daughter, Mrs. Malinda Coultas, died three years ago. He also leaves one cousin, Mrs. Mary E. Jackson of Jacksonville.

Funeral services will be conducted Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in charge of Rev. W. W. Theobald, pastor of the M. E. church, and interment will be made in the Winchester cemetery.

OPEN HOUSE TO DAY AT ALTON DEPOT

Officers are Now Installed in Pretentious New Freight Building—Will Serve Refreshments—Public is Cordially Invited.

Monday was a busy day at the Chicago & Alton railroad in spite of the inclement weather. The men moved from the old freight house and are now located in the new depot. A reception will be held today in the new depot, the hours being from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. at which refreshments will be served and the public is most cordially invited. Ten feet of the office part of the present passenger station was cut off in order to make room for the old freight house. The tall telephone pole on the west, which caused so much comment at the fire at the old depot, is also being moved about ten feet southwest, for the same purpose. The baggage room has been turned around with its side facing the tracks making it much handier for the baggage man to load and unload the trucks.

IN HONOR OF BIRTHDAYS.

Members of Minnetonka Council, No. 71, Daughters of Pocohontas, gave a delightful birthday party Monday evening in honor of Mrs. W. H. Braner and Mrs. William Suhy. The party was given at the home of Mrs. Braner on South East street and a delightful occasion it was, one that all present will remember, and especially will the two ladies in whose honor the event was given, have caused often to recall it to mind. The amusement features consisted of music and games, Mr. Rex Shaw contributing to the musical part of the evening with his graphaphone. At 10 o'clock the well filed baskets, which the guests had brought with them were opened and soon the fine culinary art of the ladies present was apparent. The refreshments were indeed delicious and were keenly enjoyed. Mrs. R. A. Bradbury of Kansas City, a former resident of Jacksonville, was among the guests. Those present departed at a late hour wishing Mrs. Braner and Mrs. Suhy many very happy returns of the day.
